Dear Friends,

I am please to extend my greetings and congratulations to everyone gathered here to celebrate the 125th anniversary of First Financial Group. As one of Philadelphia Business Journal's "Best Places to Work" for four years running, First Financial Group has been a model of growth and forward thinking—advising 21,000 policy holders as they work towards prosperity.

The success of First Financial Group has accelerated under the outstanding leadership of Mr. Harris Fishman. I am proud to represent in Congress someone who has not only maintained, but grown his business during very difficult economic times. Under his leadership, First Financial Group has more than doubled its full-time financial professionals who now manage over one billion dollars in assets.

As you celebrate this anniversary I hope you will all take pride in your hard work and look forward to your continued success.

Sincerely,

Allyson Y. Schwartz
Member of Congress
